

Head of IT - Amaze

Samenvatting	A strategic IT management position in a dynamic mobility scale-up.
Vacature	In the position of Head of IT at Amaze, you are responsible for managing all aspects regarding IT and development. You ensure the organisation is perfectly set up for delivering innovation. You recognize yourself in someone who has both a strategic and a operational point of view on matters. You feel comfortable being responsible for big projects and you are keen on delivering the best possible results in the pace that fits with the type of organisation we are.
Wie is Amaze	We sometimes still call Amaze a start-up, but this label is beginning to fit a bit tight due to rapid expansion. We're the love child of a collaboration between major, forward-thinking mobility providers like Amber, Arcadus, Autobick, and Transdev and have won a tender to improve the liveability and accessibility of the Zuidas in Amsterdam. We may have started small, but dream big as we aim to be the most popular Mobility-as-a Service app in The Netherlands in two years. At Amaze, we simplify commutes and journeys by giving you access to every kind of transportation you need to connect your trip. From shared bikes during sunny days to public transport and shared cars during stormy showers. With Amaze, you can plan, book, pay and travel - all in one app. While we've just reached our first pit stop launching Amaze in the App Store, we don't have a final destination. We go where the road takes us and continue to improve and add features - and ideate new concepts that better connect your trip from A to Z.
